K-2 Classroom Updates

The K-2 class enjoyed the warmer weather this week as they finished up their writing projects this week. We have also been learning a lot about graphing in math class. We also enjoyed celebrating letters O-R this week. O was opposites (we did an opposite schedule). P was for pajamas and pillows! Q was for quiet (we had fun playing quiet ball) and R was for reading (we read in lots of different places, including the library!)

We are looking forward to next week with our ABC countdown, field trip, and field day!

3-5 Classroom Updates

We are getting excited for the warmer weather and our end-of-the-year activities. We have become better communicators and better problem solvers. Staying focused on tasks is easier when you have strong skills and have a large choice of strategies.

Research papers are almost done. We're practicing our songs and skits for the Spring Program. We are learning a praise anthem to sing with the entire school at the Ascension/Graduation service May 30. We are also looking forward to our field trip to the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum and U.S. Bank Stadium this coming week. We always enjoy Field Day and hope for good weather.

6-8 Classroom Updates

We are in the process of putting the finishing touches on our research reports. We made our first set of edits to our original drafts this week. Next week we will be polishing up our drafts a little more and then publishing our final drafts. After all this hard work, it will be a good feeling to have a final, completed report that we are proud of. We look forward to sharing our final product!

We are nearing the end of our last novel for the year in reading class. Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry has really opened our eyes to the very difficult struggles African American families faced in the South in the early 1900's. The class has found the book both enjoyable and intense. This book has reminded us to have love and empathy for people of all different backgrounds and cultures. The love Jesus first showed us gives us the motivation to love all people regardless of how they might be different from us.
