BIBLE STUDY AT ST. PETER LUTHERAN

Minor Prophets – Major Messages

An Introduction to and Application of the Old Testament Minor Prophets

They are simply referred to as “the Twelve” by Hebrew scholars. The twelve small books that sit at the end of our Old Testament are largely unfamiliar to most Christians. So why study them? Not only are they as divinely-inspired as major books like Genesis and Isaiah, they have bold law and gospel content in condensed form. They also answer fundamental questions like: “What is God’s love really like?” “When is God satisfied with an offering?” and “Is there any earthly benefit to faith?”

On Sunday mornings through January and February we will introduce and apply the minor prophets. We hope to enjoy some rich background and thought-provoking discussions as part of our work at Sunday morning Bible studies 9:15-10:10 a.m. Our first study is scheduled for January 10.

January 10 – Introduction and background

January 17 – Hosea & Joel

January 24 – Amos & Obadiah

February 7 – Jonah & Micah

February 14 – Nahum & Habakkuk

February 21 – Zephaniah & Haggai

February 28 – Zechariah & Malachi
